

Principals and Administrators – Here's Why GoVenture is Right for Your School...

PRINCIPALS & ADMINISTRATORS

GoVenture award-winning software simulations help youth and adults gain business and life experience using a highly effective and engaging learning-by-doing approach. Similar to flight simulators for business and life, GoVenture offers a leading-edge, hands-on educational experience that is ideal for any school setting.

Popular with Students and Teachers

There are many stories to tell. Students arriving early to class and leaving late just to use GoVenture. Teachers encouraged by a change in attitude with kids at risk. Students engaged in their learning and eager to ask insightful questions spurred by the real-world experience that GoVenture provides. GoVenture speaks to students at all levels – whether book-smart, street-smart, or somewhere in between. And it's perfect for teachers as well – it includes everything needed for easy integration into any course or curriculum. GoVenture provides an encouraging foundation for educators who may be new to teaching their subject, and a perfect curriculum enhancement for veteran educators.

External Exposure

GoVenture is on the leading edge of education and is the type of activity that students get excited about. So much so that they will often discuss the "cool program" they are using at school with friends and parents. Studies show that parents want their children to learn more real world business and life skills at school. And businesspeople seek to sponsor programs that bring entrepreneurial concepts to the classroom.

Increased Enrollment

Enrollments in programs and schools that use GoVenture-like products are sure to increase. GoVenture relates to students in a format that they are comfortable with and excited by.

Ease of Use

GoVenture is easy to use. And teachers are provided everything needed for easy integration in the classroom. In addition, the GoVenture team is standing by to offer full customer support via toll-free telephone, email, fax, or face-to-face at the many events we attend. Customer care is our commitment.

Minimum Risk

No one likes the idea of trying something new that may not work. GoVenture has been used in schools, homes, career centers, and businesses for over two years, throughout North America and in several international countries. GoVenture is built on a robust technology foundation that is highly flexible for use in any technology environment. GoVenture has won numerous international awards and is represented by the top education and technology companies in the world.

Affordable

A variety of affordable pricing options are available to suit all budgets. GoVenture costs less than many textbooks. And GoVenture is an investment that can be leveraged in a variety of subjects, including business, marketing, entrepreneurship, career and life, economics, math, and more!
